COLONIAL THEATRE. "The Poisoned Bit," Most Remarkable

Two Reel Feature for Today.

The program at the Colonial theatre for today is one of wonderful variety, and is headed by the sterling feature by the Edison cast entitled, The Poissoned Bit, and is in two reels. The Spirit of Jealousy is the big Biograph drama, which is accompanied by the following films, Slippery Sim Gets Cured, one of those Essanay screams, and The Heart of Sunny Jim, a fascinating little feature with Bobby Conneily, the jewel of the Vitagraph cast. cinating little feature with Boboy Con-neils, the jewel of the Vitagraph cast. The Christian seats are selling at a record rate, and already it looks as if the demand for them would be if the demand for them would be greater than the supply. Several the-atre parties are booked, and many out of town orders received. Everyone an-calpating attending this most sublime of multiple-reel feature dramas, should secure their seats at once. It is impossible to describe the stupendous and impressive scenes, and Edith Storey as Glory with Earl Williams, as John Storm, are characters only glorified by the magnificent crest which supports them. There are 500 peenes and over 3,000 peeple in this production. Don't lose your seat, but secure it today at the box office which is open at 10 o'clock. Phone 985.

At the close of the whist contest, refreshments will be for sale, including ice cream, cake. etc., following which dancing will be enjoyed. Music will be furnished by the Harmony orchestra, that organization having volunteered its services for the evening.

The women of Norwich who conceived the plan for raising relief funds are enthusiastic over the prospects for a brilliant success, which is indicated by the great public interest that is being manifested in the project. The net proceeds of the entertainment will be added to the million dollar relief fund now being raised by the American branch of the Red Cross.

Frank LaBonte, 13, Accidentally Kille When Companion Fires at Squirre

The hunting season opened in Stafford Thursday with an awful tragedy. Frank La Bonte, age 13, while in company with Ernest Jones, W. O. Potter and Luigi Baldracchi was shot and instantly illed. The boy climbed into a tree after a grey squirrel. The squirrel jumped onto a limb higher up and as it did so Luigi Baldracchi who was in the party took aim and fired was a bright little fellow and well known in the Springs, where he some-times assisted his father peddling ice.

TOWN HORRORS. There is a man in our town
And he is full of prunes;
He has a rusty phonograph
And never changes tunes.

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

There is a man in our town
Who helps mosquitoes breed;
He owns a host of corner lots
And never cuts a weed.
—Houston

Who's even worse than that:
Who's even worse than that:
He's teaching tango dancing on
The floor above our flat.

Who owns a vacant lot!
The city carts its garbage there
To make a beauty spot!

> Do thy best always, do it now; For in the present time, As in the furrows of a plough, Fall seeds of good or crime And soon the harvest of thy toil
> Rejoicing thou shalt reap,
> Or o'er thy wild, neglected soil
> Go forth in shame to weep.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"I hear men were scarce at y resort—so scarce that the girls had to dance with each other."
"Why, they even had to teach each other to swim."—Pittsburgh Post. Wyn-Why do you talk about your own intelligence? It is bad form, Ches—I know it is, but it got me relieved of jury duty once.-Standard haparral. Father-My son, I worked my way through college.

'17—Maybe you don't call it work to have to wash my runabout before I can take it out every Saturday aft-

"Did you kill the moths with the noth balls I recommended?" asked the druggist, "No, I didn't," said the customer, truculently, "I sat up all night and didn't hit a single moth."—Current ernoon.-California Pelican.

Bess—Aren't you glad the United States is neutral? mored-aua?adetaoics cs cs cs cscscs Tess—Yes, we've lost all of our population that we can spare in rail-road wrecks, Fourth of July celebra-tions, embalmed-food feasts and so on.—Life.

Crusty Guest (after a long wait)—I understand you've seen active service? Waiter (proudly)—I have sir. Crusty Guest.—Would you mind telling me where the restaurant is located?—Puck. "Going to divorce your husband, eh?

Let me recommend my lawyer. He got me my divorce without the slightest publicity."
"Glad you told me about him. I might have made a mistake and employed him if you had not."—Houston

Sergeant—Halt! You can't go there.
Private Murphy—Why not, sir? Sergeant—Because it's the general's tent.
Private Murphy—Then, bedad, what are they doing with "Private" above the door?—Kansas City Times. Native praised. He gave us that bootiful free library. Tourist-I'm glad you appreciate it; but you don't look like a reading man either. Native-No sir; I don't use the library, but my old woman gets the job o' cleanin it out!-London Opin-
